MUSIC ASSOCIATION CLOSES SEASON

The April meeting of the Norwich Music association was held Tuesday evening in Star hall annex.

All business concluded, the hymn to music was sung as a tribute to Dr. Selden, supporter of its members, after which the regular programme was carried out, as follows:

Canabile in D. No. 7. Chopin. Nocturne in A. No. 1. Chopin. Etude, C Major, op. 10, No. 7. Chopin. Mazurka, A Minor, op. 17. Chopin. Scherzo, B Minor, op. 30. Chopin. Polka, op. 40, No. 1. Chopin. Military Polonaise, A Major. Chopin. Frank L. Farrell.

Mr. Learned gave a splendid account of his skill on the cello, playing with admirable taste and expression, above all producing a real cello tone, rich and warm, maintaining the bass qualities of his instrument.

His performance throughout showed an instinctive blending of technique and musical comprehension. Miss Constance Learned accompanied her father on the piano in a very artistic and sympathetic manner.

It would be an oft-told tale to discuss the details of Mr. Farrell's brilliant performance. It was masterful, marked in its exposition of all the style, expression, and pianistic effects dependent upon a complete command of everything the piano can be made to do.

Notable throughout for a perfection of delivery and interpretation, the charm of his playing is perhaps never more potently displayed than in the music of Chopin, of which he has a marvelous and appreciating understanding. There is a personal quality that gives his playing an individual significance and beauty, well qualified to bring out the real beauty of his music.

At the close of his numbers he was forced to respond to an insistent encore.

The performance of both musicians was at all times pleasing to the audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the treat of a Chopin evening, so splendidly interpreted.

Decorations of pink carnations and white daisies were artistically arranged around the piano by Mrs. W. A. Selden and Miss Louise C. Howe.

By motion of Gen. W. A. Selden, an appreciation of thanks was tendered to the retiring president, Dr. Selden, for his faithful and untiring interest in all matters pertaining to the association, which he has served so long and so ably.

At this time the nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. W. A. Selden, Mrs. W. A. Selden, and Miss Louise C. Howe, presented the following names to be voted on as officers for the coming year:

Frederick H. Cranston, president; Henry A. Tirrell, vice president; Robert Johnson, treasurer; Miss Hannah C. Selden, secretary; Miss Louise C. Howe, assistant secretary; Miss Mary Shannon, chairman flower committee; Miss Elizabeth Selden, chairman social committee; Mrs. Charles Tyler, chairman of the year; Mrs. W. A. Selden, chorus committee.

These officers were unanimously elected.

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arsenic from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single particle of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.
